

2022-23 Top Scholars per Ward

TORONTO – The Toronto Catholic District School Board (TCDSB) is pleased to announce the Top Scholars from each Ward for the 2022-23 academic year.

These top students exceeded provincial education standards by maintaining grade averages between 98% and 100%. These exceptional students not only demonstrated a strong commitment to their education but also persevered despite the ongoing challenges of recovering from the pandemic.

They will be heading into post-secondary institutions with confidence from graduating with high scores in a diverse range of courses.

“The Top Scholars at TCDSB are a source of immense pride for all of us at the Board,” says Nancy Crawford, Chair of the Board. “Through their dedication to hard work, these students have demonstrated what can be achieved when clear goals are in mind. We wish them the very best as they pursue their post-secondary studies and achieve their dreams.”

“TCDSB's distinguished Top Scholars have unequivocally surpassed our Catholic Graduate Expectations,” asserts Dr. Brendan Browne, Director of Education. “The unwavering commitment displayed by our Top Scholars towards their academics highlights their dedication, resilience, and perseverance in achieving their dreams. We offer our sincere gratitude to both the staff and families comprising our school communities for their unwavering support throughout this educational journey.”
